

Emerging Achiever Award

This award recognises individuals who have been in full-time employment in the sheep and beef sector for less than five years and are demonstrating future leadership potential. This may be through new ideas, influencing others, improving farm productivity, profitability, sustainability or business diversity. They have potential to have a positive impact on the sector in the future. Individual entries or nominations are welcome.

Name of entrant/nominee:

Address:

Contact phone:

Email address:

Name of nominator:

Email and contact phone number:

Briefly describe the achievements/responsibilities/influence that makes you (nominee) a strong contender for this award:

List the leadership/areas of responsibility, influential roles that you (nominee) are or have been involved in (this can be within or outside your workplace):

Share at least one (1) example of how you (nominee) have had an impact in the workplace, community or project/activity ie responsibilities, decision making, peer influence/leadership:

Outline your (nominee) goals and ambitions for the future ie. project, career, community or personal goals:

Please note: All entrants/ nominees will have the opportunity to expend on their answers in a follow-up phone call as part of the judging process.

Terms and Conditions of entry

Entries are open to people and organisations working in, or providing support services to, New Zealand's sheep, beef and dairy beef sector.

Nominations and entries can be made for more than one award category but a separate entry /nomination is required for each entry.

Nominators must notify their nominees of their nomination and ensure correct and validated information is provided.

B+LNZ reserves the the right to deny entry to a potential entrant, deem any entrant ineligible , and to terminate an entrant's entry if the entrants behaviour is deemed to bring or potentially bring the Awards into disrepute. Entrant includes when an award has been announced.

All nominees/entrants agree to phone call as part of the judging process to clarify, gather and validate information provided.

Judges reserve the right to not to allocate an award in a category should the Award's criteria or the standards of entry not be met.

The judges' decision will be final and no discussion will be entered into. The judges panel reserve the right not to judge an entry if it is deemed to be unsubstantiated.

Entrants accept that their business must be compliant with relevant regulatory and environmental requirements.

Entrants agree to provide photos, stories or videos as required by Beef + Lamb New Zealand to promote the awards, winners and the sheep and beef sector.

Entrants agree to their details being shared with event partners to promote and leverage the event and their involvement.

I accept the terms and conditions of entry.

Entries and nominations must be received by 5pm on Friday 27 August 2021

Please send along with any supporting material to: Fiona Bowe, Beef + Lamb New Zealand
Email: events@beeflambnz.com Phone 0800 BEEF LAMB (0800 233 352)
Freepost 429, Beef + Lamb New Zealand Limited, PO Box 121, Wellington 6140

