Signatories

1. Please read the following carefully:

Agree that to the best of your knowledge all information provided on this Application Form is true and correct.

By signing the application form students who are selected for a scholarship give permission to Beef + Lamb New Zealand to:

- Allow Beef + Lamb New Zealand to publish information about the student on Beef + Lamb New Zealand's and other relevant websites for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Beef + Lamb New Zealand Undergraduate Scholarship.
- Allow Beef + Lamb New Zealand to publish information about the student in hardcopy publications for scholarship promotional purposes.
- Attend selected Career Expo's, and other promotional, or red meat sector events to promote the scholarships, the red meat sector and the benefits of higher education to the future of the sheep and beef industry in New Zealand. This would typically be required up to twice per year.
- Arrange and conduct a thorough speaking engagement at a secondary school to inform students of the advantages of a career in the red meat sector and agriculture industry.
- All applicants, by signing the application form, give permission to Beef + Lamb New Zealand, and their university of study to exchange information about them for the purpose of assessing applications, selecting candidates for the scholarship, and if awarded a scholarship, for the purpose of distributing and obtaining information during and following the completion of studies.
- Attend a 2 day conference hosted by Beef + Lamb New Zealand mid-year
- Provide a 100 – 200 word self-profile for the Beef + Lamb New Zealand website. The profile should include a brief self-background, and a reflection of commitment to and passion for the New Zealand sheep and beef / red meat sector. New scholars could model their content from profiles of current scholars on the website.
- The Scholar agrees to act as an ambassador for, positively endorsing and carrying the good name and spirit of the Beef + Lamb New Zealand Scholarship amongst the community.
